

5 SENSES IN PHOTOGRAPHY

AS A PHOTOGRAPHER

BY YU-AN LIN (ANN)

MY PROJECTS

BY ANN

SENSE 1: SIGHT

LEADING LINES + RULE OF THIRDS

The pathway lined with autumn trees guides the viewer's eyes through color and light. This scene shows how sight connects us to the changing beauty of nature.

Canon

29mm f/4.0 1/200s ISO100

SENSE 2: HEARING

DEPTH + FRAMING

The laughter and motion of children at play evoke the sounds of joy. The layered composition captures how hearing brings energy and life into still images.

SENSE 3: TASTE

SYMMETRY + FRAMING

Through Tim Horton's window, the warm color and coffee cup suggest comfort and flavor. This composition invites the viewer to imagine the familiar taste of home.

SENSE 4: TOUCH

TEXTURE

The sunlight brushing over the grass creates a gentle texture that can almost be felt. This photo expresses the quiet warmth of touch in everyday moments.

SENSE 5: SMELL

RULE OF THIRDS + DEPTH

A butterfly resting among lavender fields shows the calm and sweetness of scent. The focus and distance create a dreamy atmosphere of smell.

Canon

115mm f/5.6 1/250s ISO100

THANK YOU